

more from the main rigging within two feet of the water's edge, and found her in her hold. She was taken in tow by S. M. Barnes, and was brought to Baltimore. The crew has since arrived in New York.

BIG MOUNTAIN EAGLE, built at Rockland in 1853, has been sold for $2000.

BOAT, 100 ft. long, of New Jersey, or Corseca, of Fall River, Mass., left together while lying at anchor about 3 miles below Elizabethtown on the 19th ult. when the Corseca was cut through by the chain bolts of the boat, and went to about 20 feet of water. The boat was built for Capt. Elizabethtown, of the Z. Co. for Providence, where she now is in the Corseca, for Fall River.

John Snow, Cole, from Philadelphia, for Boston, with coal and coke, about 100 tons, and was run ashore on Hennepin Beach 2 mi. off. She was got off after discharging 40 tons coal and taken back to Philadelphia.

John Hinsdale, foreman of the Bell Gate, was not full of oil, and has been got off without damage.

Snow, C. L., of New York, C. 170 tons, built at New York in 1848, has been purchased by parties in East Greenwich and Providence for $3000.

SOAR, 87 GALLON, of Bayonne, N.J., 150 tons, built at Newark, N.J., in 1853, now at Pawtucket, has been purchased by Messrs. Grant and others, of that place, and Captain John Hinsdale, of Fall River, Mass., will have her hauled from Pawtucket, under command of Capt. Daniel O'Uraine.

Lorraine, a steamer of 1000 tons will be launched this week at Richmond, Me., from the yard of Mr. H. S. Thorne. The vessel is named the Ramban. She is owned by the builder and parties in Providence.

John Mayle, Esq., of New Haven, Conn., the owner of the steamship John Mayle, of 150 tons, was born April 10, 1836, at Myrtle Ct., a first class steamship, of the following dimensions:—98 feet in length, 33 feet in width, and 25 feet depth, and about 1000 tons, owned by himself and others. Her much name is furnished by the Mystic Iron Works.

At Rockland 21st ult. by R. C. Thomas, who G. K. Kimball.

Joe Glaser, built at Blacker's yard in Fairhaven, was launched on the 2d ult. She is owned by Sylvanus Thompson and others of New Bedford, and is designed for the Hudson's Bay whale fishery.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

The Bremen on Round Rock, Point Ledge, and Webster's Rock, at the entrance of Gloucester harbor, have been marking for some weeks.

Whalemen.

Bart Java, Whalley, arr. at New Bedford 25th ult. from San Francisco, for Boston, April 16, with 1000 bbls oil taken since leaving San Fran., 1725 do ton and 1600 do. ton. Reportors say 1st art. at 0.25 do. ton and 2nd art. at 0.30 do. ton.

SOAR, 87 GALLON, of Bayonne, N.J., 150 tons, built at Newark, N.J., in 1853, now at Pawtucket, has been purchased by Messrs. Grant and others, of that place, and Captain John Hinsdale, of Fall River, Mass., will have her hauled from Pawtucket, under command of Capt. Daniel O'Uraine.

Lorraine, a steamer of 1000 tons will be launched this week at Richmond, Me., from the yard of Mr. H. S. Thorne. The vessel is named the Ramban. She is owned by the builder and parties in Providence.

John Mayle, Esq., of New Haven, Conn., the owner of the steamship John Mayle, of 150 tons, was born April 10, 1836, at Myrtle Ct., a first class steamship, of the following dimensions:—98 feet in length, 33 feet in width, and 25 feet depth, and about 1000 tons, owned by himself and others. Her much name is furnished by the Mystic Iron Works.

At Rockland 21st ult. by R. C. Thomas, who G. K. Kimball.

Joe Glaser, built at Blacker's yard in Fairhaven, was launched on the 2d ult. She is owned by Sylvanus Thompson and others of New Bedford, and is designed for the Hudson's Bay whale fishery.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

The Bremen on Round Rock, Point Ledge, and Webster's Rock, at the entrance of Gloucester harbor, have been marking for some weeks.

Whalemen.

Bart Java, Whalley, arr. at New Bedford 25th ult. from San Francisco, for Boston, April 16, with 1000 bbls oil taken since leaving San Fran., 1725 do ton and 1600 do. ton. Reportors say 1st art. at 0.25 do. ton
and 2nd art. at 0.30 do. ton.

SOAR, 87 GALLON, of Bayonne, N.J., 150 tons, built at Newark, N.J., in 1853, now at Pawtucket, has been purchased by Messrs. Grant and others, of that place, and Captain John Hinsdale, of Fall River, Mass., will have her hauled from Pawtucket, under command of Capt. Daniel O'Uraine.

Lorraine, a steamer of 1000 tons will be launched this week at Richmond, Me., from the yard of Mr. H. S. Thorne. The vessel is named the Ramban. She is owned by the builder and parties in Providence.

John Mayle, Esq., of New Haven, Conn., the owner of the steamship John Mayle, of 150 tons, was born April 10, 1836, at Myrtle Ct., a first class steamship, of the following dimensions:—98 feet in length, 33 feet in width, and 25 feet depth, and about 1000 tons, owned by himself and others. Her much name is furnished by the Mystic Iron Works.

At Rockland 21st ult. by R. C. Thomas, who G. K. Kimball.

Joe Glaser, built at Blacker's yard in Fairhaven, was launched on the 2d ult. She is owned by Sylvanus Thompson and others of New Bedford, and is designed for the Hudson's Bay whale fishery.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

The Bremen on Round Rock, Point Ledge, and Webster's Rock, at the entrance of Gloucester harbor, have been marking for some weeks.

Whalemen.

Bart Java, Whalley, arr. at New Bedford 25th ult. from San Francisco, for Boston, April 16, with 1000 bbls oil taken since leaving San Fran., 1725 do ton and 1600 do. ton. Reportors say 1st art. at 0.25 do. ton
and 2nd art. at 0.30 do. ton.

SOAR, 87 GALLON, of Bayonne, N.J., 150 tons, built at Newark, N.J., in 1853, now at Pawtucket, has been purchased by Messrs. Grant and others, of that place, and Captain John Hinsdale, of Fall River, Mass., will have her hauled from Pawtucket, under command of Capt. Daniel O'Uraine.

Lorraine, a steamer of 1000 tons will be launched this week at Richmond, Me., from the yard of Mr. H. S. Thorne. The vessel is named the Ramban. She is owned by the builder and parties in Providence.

John Mayle, Esq., of New Haven, Conn., the owner of the steamship John Mayle, of 150 tons, was born April 10, 1836, at Myrtle Ct., a first class steamship, of the following dimensions:—98 feet in length, 33 feet in width, and 25 feet depth, and about 1000 tons, owned by himself and others. Her much name is furnished by the Mystic Iron Works.

At Rockland 21st ult. by R. C. Thomas, who G. K. Kimball.

Joe Glaser, built at Blacker's yard in Fairhaven, was launched on the 2d ult. She is owned by Sylvanus Thompson and others of New Bedford, and is designed for the Hudson's Bay whale fishery.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

The Bremen on Round Rock, Point Ledge, and Webster's Rock, at the entrance of Gloucester harbor, have been marking for some weeks.

Whalemen.

Bart Java, Whalley, arr. at New Bedford 25th ult. from San Francisco, for Boston, April 16, with 1000 bbls oil taken since leaving San Fran., 1725 do ton and 1600 do. ton. Reportors say 1st art. at 0.25 do. ton
and 2nd art. at 0.30 do. ton.

SOAR, 87 GALLON, of Bayonne, N.J., 150 tons, built at Newark, N.J., in 1853, now at Pawtucket, has been purchased by Messrs. Grant and others, of that place, and Captain John Hinsdale, of Fall River, Mass., will have her hauled from Pawtucket, under command of Capt. Daniel O'Uraine.

Lorraine, a steamer of 1000 tons will be launched this week at Richmond, Me., from the yard of Mr. H. S. Thorne. The vessel is named the Ramban. She is owned by the builder and parties in Providence.

John Mayle, Esq., of New Haven, Conn., the owner of the steamship John Mayle, of 150 tons, was born April 10, 1836, at Myrtle Ct., a first class steamship, of the following dimensions:—98 feet in length, 33 feet in width, and 25 feet depth, and about 1000 tons, owned by himself and others. Her much name is furnished by the Mystic Iron Works.

At Rockland 21st ult. by R. C. Thomas, who G. K. Kimball.

Joe Glaser, built at Blacker's yard in Fairhaven, was launched on the 2d ult. She is owned by Sylvanus Thompson and others of New Bedford, and is designed for the Hudson's Bay whale fishery.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

The Bremen on Round Rock, Point Ledge, and Webster's Rock, at the entrance of Gloucester harbor, have been marking for some weeks.

Whalemen.

Bart Java, Whalley, arr. at New Bedford 25th ult. from San Francisco, for Boston, April 16, with 1000 bbls oil taken since leaving San Fran., 1725 do ton and 1600 do. ton. Reportors say 1st art. at 0.25 do. ton
and 2nd art. at 0.30 do. ton.

SOAR, 87 GALLON, of Bayonne, N.J., 150 tons, built at Newark, N.J., in 1853, now at Pawtucket, has been purchased by Messrs. Grant and others, of that place, and Captain John Hinsdale, of Fall River, Mass., will have her hauled from Pawtucket, under command of Capt. Daniel O'Uraine.

Lorraine, a steamer of 1000 tons will be launched this week at Richmond, Me., from the yard of Mr. H. S. Thorne. The vessel is named the Ramban. She is owned by the builder and parties in Providence.

John Mayle, Esq., of New Haven, Conn., the owner of the steamship John Mayle, of 150 tons, was born April 10, 1836, at Myrtle Ct., a first class steamship, of the following dimensions:—98 feet in length, 33 feet in width, and 25 feet depth, and about 1000 tons, owned by himself and others. Her much name is furnished by the Mystic Iron Works.

At Rockland 21st ult. by R. C. Thomas, who G. K. Kimball.

Joe Glaser, built at Blacker's yard in Fairhaven, was launched on the 2d ult. She is owned by Sylvanus Thompson and others of New Bedford, and is designed for the Hudson's Bay whale fishery.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

The Bremen on Round Rock, Point Ledge, and Webster's Rock, at the entrance of Gloucester harbor, have been marking for some weeks.

Whalemen.

Bart Java, Whalley, arr. at New Bedford 25th ult. from San Francisco, for Boston, April 16, with 1000 bbls oil taken since leaving San Fran., 1725 do ton and 1600 do. ton. Reportors say 1st art. at 0.25 do. ton
and 2nd art. at 0.30 do. ton.

SOAR, 87 GALLON, of Bayonne, N.J., 150 tons, built at Newark, N.J., in 1853, now at Pawtucket, has been purchased by Messrs. Grant and others, of that place, and Captain John Hinsdale, of Fall River, Mass., will have her hauled from Pawtucket, under command of Capt. Daniel O'Uraine.

Lorraine, a steamer of 1000 tons will be launched this week at Richmond, Me., from the yard of Mr. H. S. Thorne. The vessel is named the Ramban. She is owned by the builder and parties in Providence.

John Mayle, Esq., of New Haven, Conn., the owner of the steamship John Mayle, of 150 tons, was born April 10, 1836, at Myrtle Ct., a first class steamship, of the following dimensions:—98 feet in length, 33 feet in width, and 25 feet depth, and about 1000 tons, owned by himself and others. Her much name is furnished by the Mystic Iron Works.

At Rockland 21st ult. by R. C. Thomas, who G. K. Kimball.

Joe Glaser, built at Blacker's yard in Fairhaven, was launched on the 2d ult. She is owned by Sylvanus Thompson and others of New Bedford, and is designed for the Hudson's Bay whale fishery.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

The Bremen on Round Rock, Point Ledge, and Webster's Rock, at the entrance of Gloucester harbor, have been marking for some weeks.

Whalemen.

Bart Java, Whalley, arr. at New Bedford 25th ult. from San Francisco, for Boston, April 16, with 1000 bbls oil taken since leaving San Fran., 1725 do ton and 1600 do. ton. Reporters say 1st art. at 0.25 do. ton
and 2nd art. at 0.30 do. ton.

SOAR, 87 GALLON, of Bayonne, N.J., 150 tons, built at Newark, N.J., in 1853, now at Pawtucket, has been purchased by Messrs. Grant and others, of that place, and Captain John Hinsdale, of Fall River, Mass., will have her hauled from Pawtucket, under command of Capt. Daniel O'Uraine.

Lorraine, a steamer of 1000 tons will be launched this week at Richmond, Me., from the yard of Mr. H. S. Thorne. The vessel is named the Ramban. She is owned by the builder and parties in Providence.

John Mayle, Esq., of New Haven, Conn., the owner of the steamship John Mayle, of 150 tons, was born April 10, 1836, at Myrtle Ct., a first class steamship, of the following dimensions:—98 feet in length, 33 feet in width, and 25 feet depth, and about 1000 tons, owned by himself and others. Her much name is furnished by the Mystic Iron Works.

At Rockland 21st ult. by R. C. Thomas, who G. K. Kimball.

Joe Glaser, built at Blacker's yard in Fairhaven, was launched on the 2d ult. She is owned by Sylvanus Thompson and others of New Bedford, and is designed for the Hudson's Bay whale fishery.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

The Bremen on Round Rock, Point Ledge, and Webster's Rock, at the entrance of Gloucester harbor, have been marking for some weeks.

Whalemen.

Bart Java, Whalley, arr. at New Bedford 25th ult. from San Francisco, for Boston, April 16, with 1000 bbls oil taken since leaving San Fran., 1725 do ton and 1600 do. ton. Reporters say 1st art. at 0.25 do. ton
and 2nd art. at 0.30 do. ton.

SOAR, 87 GALLON, of Bayonne, N.J., 150 tons, built at Newark, N.J., in 1853, now at Pawtucket, has been purchased by Messrs. Grant and others, of that place, and Captain John Hinsdale, of Fall River, Mass., will have her hauled from Pawtucket, under command of Capt. Daniel O'Uraine.

Lorraine, a steamer of 1000 tons will be launched this week at Richmond, Me., from the yard of Mr. H. S. Thorne. The vessel is named the Ramban. She is owned by the builder and parties in Providence.

John Mayle, Esq., of New Haven, Conn., the owner of the steamship John Mayle, of 150 tons, was born April 10, 1836, at Myrtle Ct., a first class steamship, of the following dimensions:—98 feet in length, 33 feet in width, and 25 feet depth, and about 1000 tons, owned by himself and others. Her much name is furnished by the Mystic Iron Works.

At Rockland 21st ult. by R. C. Thomas, who G. K. Kimball.

Joe Glaser, built at Blacker's yard in Fairhaven, was launched on the 2d ult. She is owned by Sylvanus Thompson and others of New Bedford, and is designed for the Hudson's Bay whale fishery.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

The Bremen on Round Rock, Point Ledge, and Webster's Rock, at the entrance of Gloucester harbor, have been marking for some weeks.

Whalemen.

Bart Java, Whalley, arr. at New Bedford 25th ult. from San Francisco, for Boston, April 16, with 1000 bbls oil taken since leaving San Fran., 1725 do ton and 1600 do. ton. Reporters say 1st art. at 0.25 do. ton
and 2nd art. at 0.30 do. ton.

SOAR, 87 GALLON, of Bayonne, N.J., 150 tons, built at Newark, N.J., in 1853, now at Pawtucket,